CONCLUSION
OF FIRST
RESURRECTION

REVELATION 20:5-6

⁵ But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. ⁶ Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

The background image shows a scenic view of ancient stone ruins on a hillside. In the foreground, there are stone walls and a metal railing. A set of stone steps leads up a slope. In the background, modern buildings are visible on a hillside, partially obscured by trees. The scene is bathed in bright sunlight, creating strong shadows.

REVELATION 20:11-15

¹¹And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
¹²And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things...

REVELATION 20:11-15

¹³And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. ¹⁴And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. ¹⁵And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.
