

ATHEY
CREEK

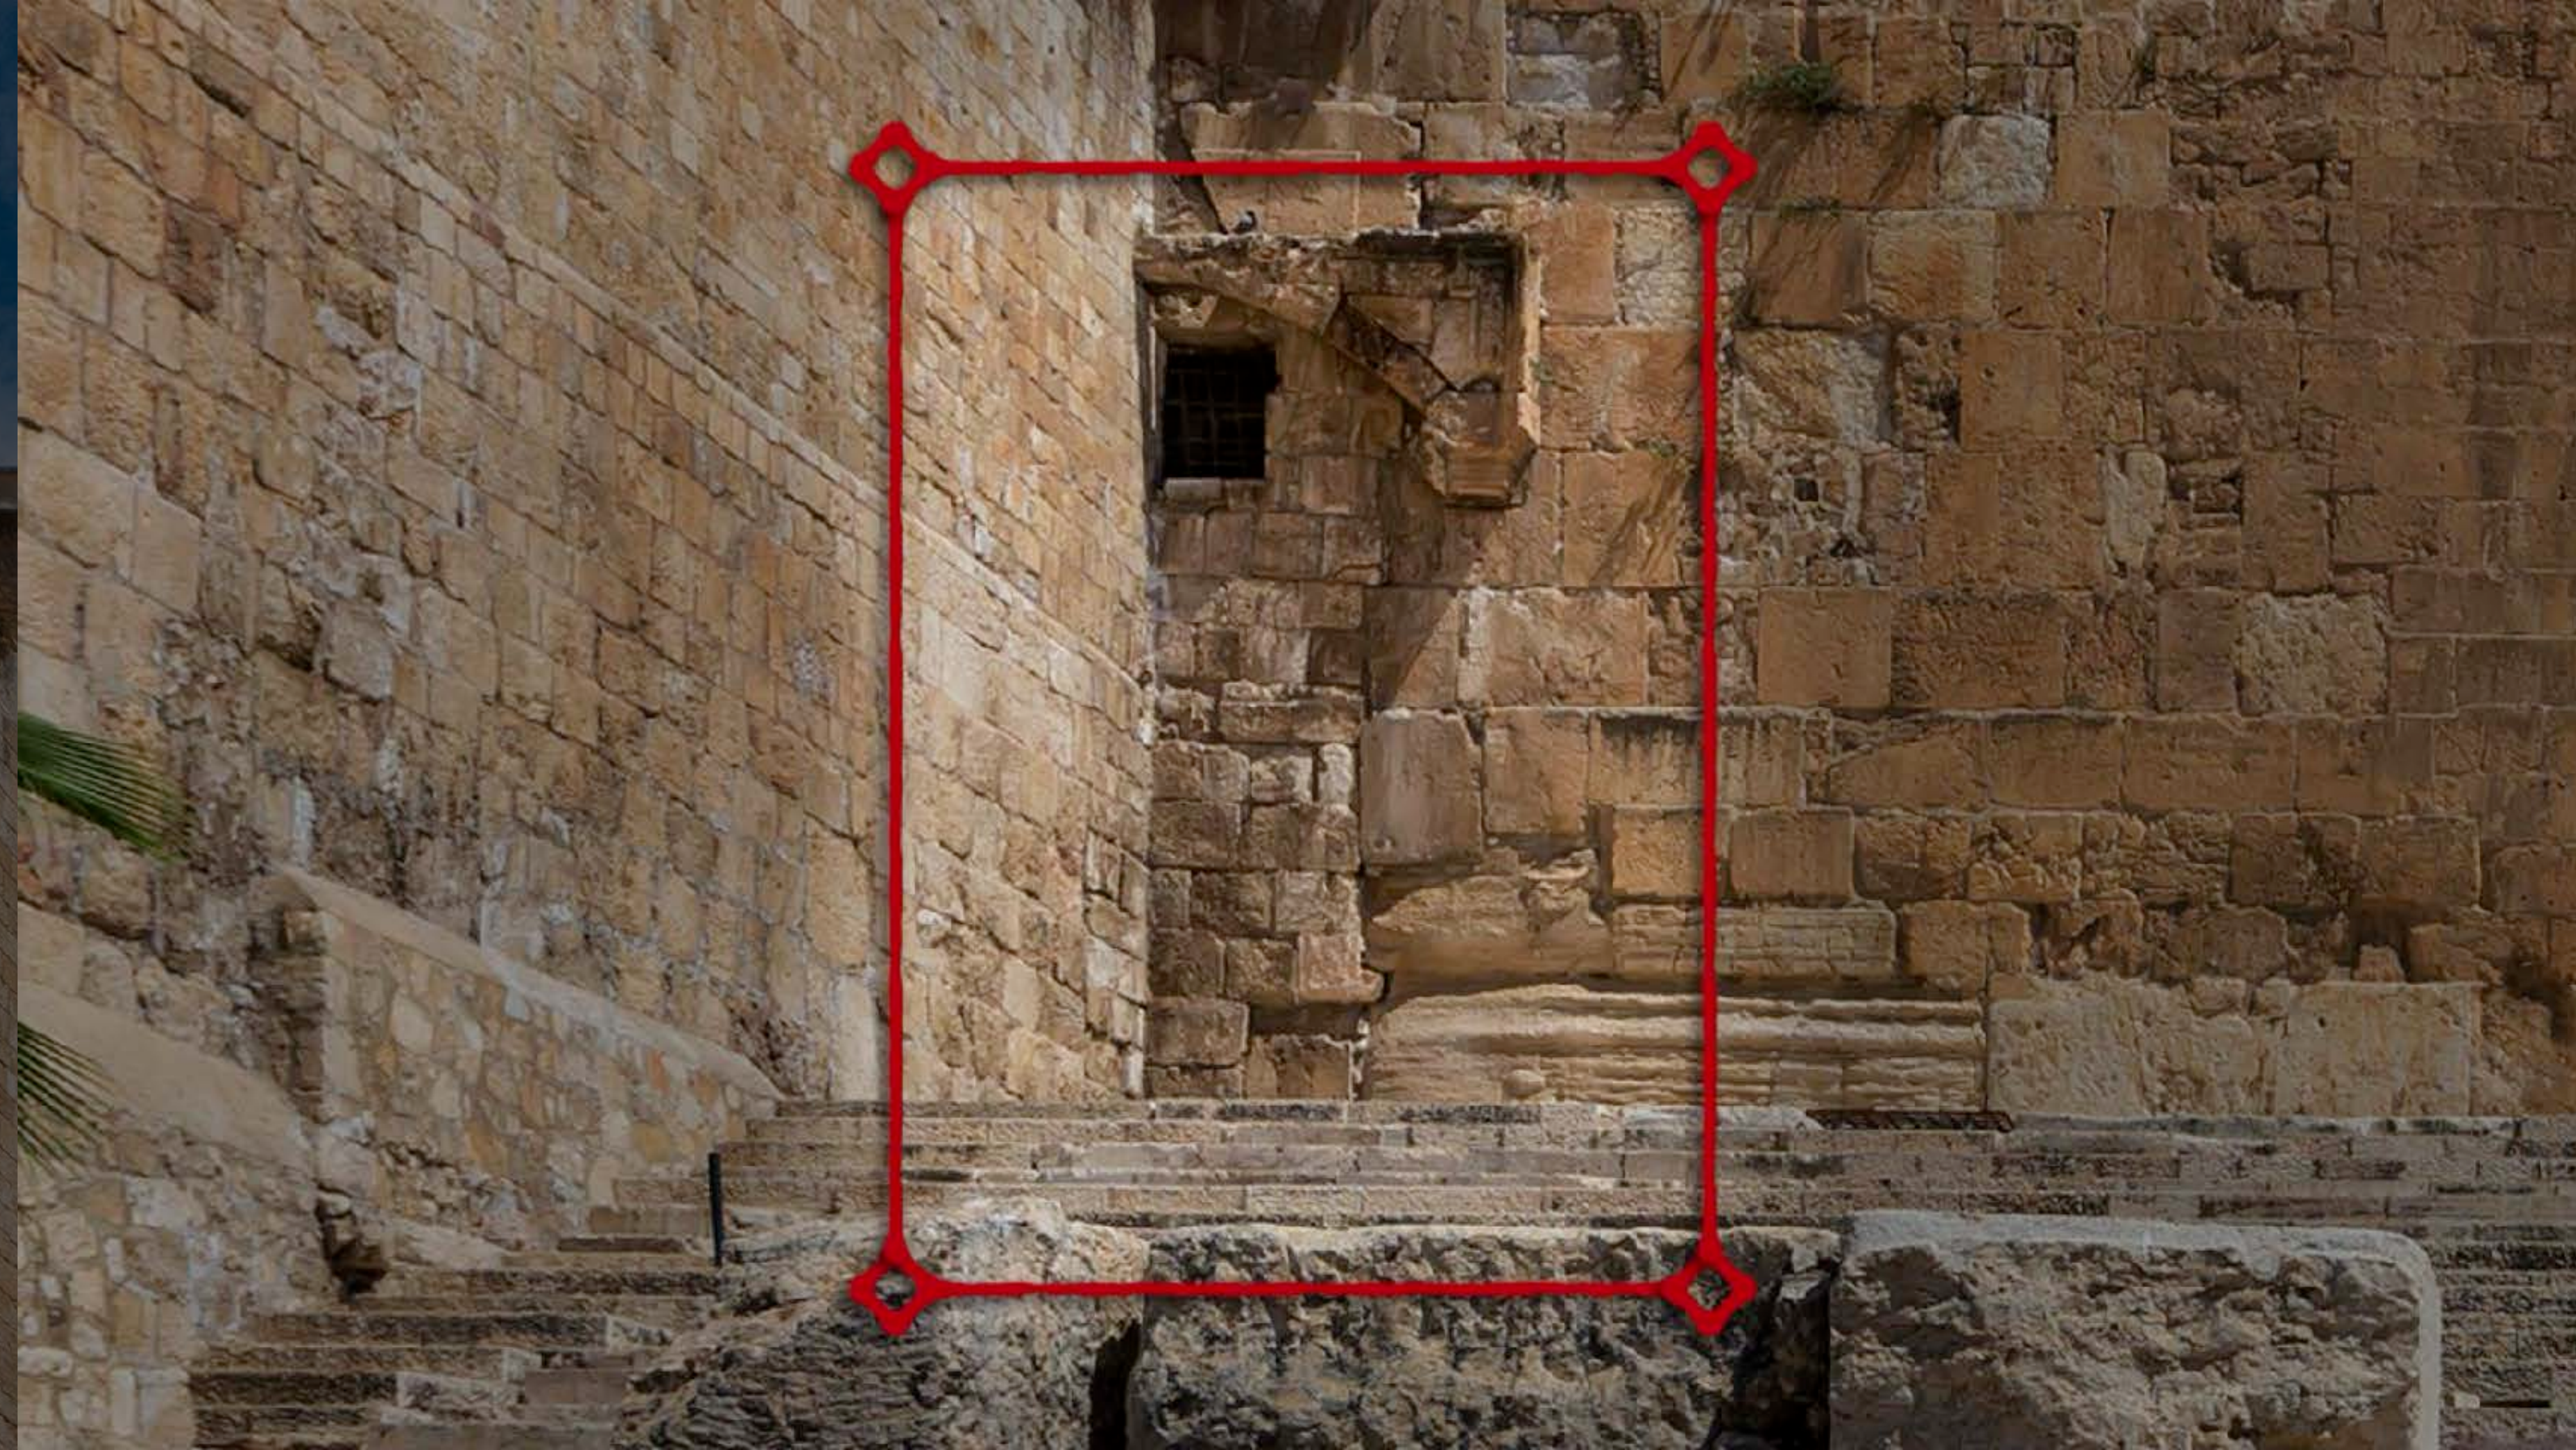

A wide-angle photograph of a massive, ancient stone wall, likely part of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. The wall is constructed from large, light-colored stone blocks. In the center, a large, rectangular, parchment-like banner is suspended by two thick ropes. The banner has a slightly aged, yellowish-tan appearance. The text 'Acts 3:1-11' is written on the banner in a large, black, serif font. The background shows a clear blue sky with scattered white clouds. The wall extends to the left and right, with various architectural details like small windows and decorative elements visible. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

¹² Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me,
the works that I do shall he
do also; and greater works
than these shall he do;
because I go unto my Father.

— John 14:12

¹³ If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit
to them that ask him?

— Luke 11:13
