

A rectangular piece of aged, yellowed parchment is suspended in the center of the frame by two thick, light-brown ropes. The ropes are knotted at the top and bottom. The parchment has a rough, textured surface with some faint, illegible markings. The background is a vast, dramatic sky filled with soft, white and grey clouds. The sky transitions from a pale blue at the top to a deeper blue near the horizon. In the lower corners, dark, jagged, and layered rock formations are visible, suggesting a coastal or cliffside setting. The overall mood is serene yet majestic.

LOGOS

gospel, the content of what is preached about Christ

41 Then they that gladly
received his word
were baptized: and the same day there were
added unto them about
three thousand souls.

— Acts 2:41

⁴Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and
the number of the men was
about five thousand.

— Acts 4:4

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

— Acts 6:7

⁴Therefore they that
were scattered abroad
went every where
preaching the word.

— Acts 8:4

44 While Peter yet spake
these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them
which heard the word.

— Acts 10:44

¹And the apostles and
brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles had also received
the word of God.

— Acts 11:1

A wooden sign with a rope hanging from it, set against a dramatic sky with clouds and rocky cliffs. The sign has a yellow highlight behind the text.

24 But the word of God
grew and multiplied.
— Acts 12:24

44 And the next sabbath
day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

— Acts 13:44

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

◆ Acts 13:46

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

◆ Acts 13:48-49

25 And when they had
preached the word
in Perga, they went
down into Attalia:
— Acts 14:25

³⁵ Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. ³⁶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

— Acts 15:35-36

³² And they spake unto him
the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

— Acts 16:32

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

— Acts 17:11

11 And he continued there
a year and six months,
teaching the word of God
among them.

— Acts 18:11

¹⁰ And this continued by the space of two years; so that all
they which dwelt in Asia heard
the word of the Lord Jesus,
both Jews and Greeks.

◆ Acts 19:10

20 So mightily grew
the word of God
and prevailed.
— Acts 19:20

A wide, horizontal banner with a weathered, parchment-like texture is suspended by two thick, brown ropes. The ropes are knotted at the top and bottom, hanging from an unseen point above. The banner is centered in the frame. The background is a vast, blue sky filled with soft, white clouds. In the lower corners, the dark, layered edges of rocky cliffs are visible, framing the central scene. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

*“Hope means hoping
when things are
hopeless, or it is no
virtue at all... As long as matters are really
hopeful, hope is mere
flattery or platitude;
it is only when
everything is hopeless
that hope begins to
be a strength.”*
