

A wide-angle photograph of a weathered stone wall under a clear blue sky. The wall is constructed from large, irregular, light-brown stone blocks. A horizontal wooden plank, serving as a sign, is mounted on the wall. The sign has a light, aged wood texture and features the text 'Acts 26:27-30' in a bold, black, serif font. The text is underlined. Two thick, light-brown ropes are attached to the top of the wall, one on the left and one on the right, hanging down. In the background, behind the wall, there is a small, dense green bush or tree. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

Acts 26:27-30

28 Then Agrippa said
to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?"

— Acts 26:28 NIV

28 And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me to be a Christian?"

— Acts 26:28 ESV

¹Behold, the LORD's hand
is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: ²but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins
have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

◆ Isaiah 59:1-2

Psalm 32

¹Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race
that is set before us,

— Hebrews 12:1
