

² My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; ³ knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. ⁴ But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

◆ James 1:2-4

²Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, ³for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness.
⁴And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

— James 1:2-4 esv

TEMPTATION / TRIAL

James 1:2

- Greek -

πειρασμός
PEIRASMÓS

1. examination, submit another to a test, to learn the true nature or character of.
2. temptation, trial, given for the purpose to make one stumble

³And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; ⁴and patience, experience; and experience, hope: ⁵and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. ⁶For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly

◆ Romans 5:3-6

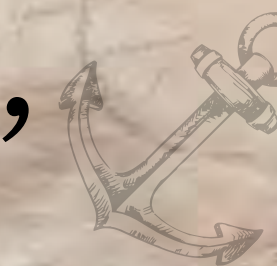

TRIBULATION

Romans 5:3

- Greek -

θλίψις
THLÎPSIS

a pressing, pressing together, pressure;
metaphorically - affliction, distress,

³And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; ⁴and patience, experience; and experience, hope: ⁵and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. ⁶For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly

◆ Romans 5:3-6

⁶And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: ⁷unto which promise
our twelve tribes, instantly
serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

◆ Acts 26:6-7

The image is a wide, horizontal banner. In the center, a rectangular piece of aged, light-brown parchment is suspended by two thick, brown ropes. The ropes are knotted at the top and bottom. The parchment has a slightly textured, weathered appearance. On the parchment, the words "Acts 27" are written in a large, black, serif font. The "A" is capitalized and has a decorative flourish. The "27" is also large and bold. The background of the entire image is a dramatic sky with soft, white and grey clouds against a blue backdrop. In the lower corners, there are dark, jagged, and layered rock formations, suggesting a cliffside or a rugged landscape. The overall composition is balanced and visually appealing, typical of a title card for a video or presentation.

A title card for the Bible chapter Acts 28. The text "Acts 28" is written in a black, serif font on a rectangular, aged parchment sign. The sign is suspended by two thick, brown ropes that are knotted at the top and bottom. The background is a wide, panoramic view of a sky filled with soft, white and grey clouds, transitioning from a lighter blue on the left to a deeper blue on the right. In the foreground, the dark, layered, and jagged edges of rocky cliffs are visible on both the left and right sides, framing the central sign.

Acts 28

¹⁵ And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. ¹⁶ He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth
not shall be damned.

— Mark 16:15-18

¹⁷ And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; ¹⁸ they shall take up serpents;
and if they drink any deadly
thing, it shall not hurt them;
they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

— Mark 16:15-18

⁷And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. ⁸For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. ⁹And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness...

◆ 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

...Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰ Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

A dramatic photograph of the Colosseum in Rome, Italy, during a sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the warm light illuminates the ancient stone structure. A rectangular sign, resembling a piece of parchment or old paper, is suspended in the center of the frame by two ropes. The sign features the text "Acts 28" in a bold, black, serif font, with the word "Acts" underlined.

Acts 28
