About us Events Next steps Press

We're *re*defining success for the people who define culture.

A Manifesto for the Curious, the Creators, and the Culture-Shapers

As humans, we are all made to worship and will worship something if we don't worship God. What are you putting your faith in? What are you worshipping?

In a world where we're always building—startups, audiences, reputations—it's easy to forget to ask what we're building toward. Fame, power, money, success: these things promise fulfillment, but often leave us wanting more.

We believe there's something deeper worth exploring.

“²³ THEN IF ANY MAN SHALL SAY UNTO YOU, LO, HERE IS CHRIST, OR THERE; BELIEVE IT NOT. ²⁴ FOR THERE SHALL ARISE FALSE CHRISTS, AND FALSE PROPHETS, AND SHALL SHEW GREAT SIGNS AND WONDERS; INSOMUCH THAT, IF IT WERE POSSIBLE, THEY SHALL DECEIVE THE VERY ELECT.”

MATTHEW 24:23–24

Opt Out Requests for LGBTQ-Inclusive Instruction

About Opt Out Requests

Seattle Public Schools works to provide a wide range of educational opportunities that reflect who students are, help them build empathy for others, and prepare them to be compassionate citizens of a diverse and changing world.

There is no option to “opt students out” of learning about particular identities or groups of people. This guidance is reinforced by OSPI (state superintendent’s office), the policies of other major urban districts (including the states of California and New York), and the outcomes of federal cases around the country. We celebrate all students in SPS.

Learning about identities or groups of people is different from sexual health education. Families do have the right to opt out of Comprehensive Sexual Health Education (CSHE) under state law. Instruction about LGBTQ identities provided for purposes such as bullying prevention, or safe and welcoming environments, is not part of CSHE and thus not subject to an opt-out.
