PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO

Timothy

¹Rebuke not an elder,
but intreat him as a father;
and the younger men as brethren; ²The elder women
as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

1 TIMOTHY 5:1-2

The image features a wide, shallow brick archway. The arch is constructed from reddish-brown bricks, with the keystone and voussoirs clearly visible. The wall inside the arch is made of rough, weathered stone or brick. On either side of the arch, there is a classical column. The columns are light-colored, possibly limestone or marble, and have ornate Corinthian capitals with acanthus leaves. The overall lighting is warm and slightly dim, creating a sense of depth and texture.

— THE PURPOSE —

ENCOURAGE AND INSTRUCT IN THE AREA OF MINISTRY.

The image features a stone archway with two columns on either side. The columns are made of light-colored stone and have ornate, carved capitals. The arch is constructed from reddish-brown bricks. In the center of the arch, a large, rectangular piece of parchment or paper is displayed. The parchment has a slightly aged, yellowish-tan color and a rough, torn edge. On the parchment, the text of Titus 2:13 is written in a black, serif font. The text is centered and reads: "13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;". Below the text, there is a short horizontal line, and then the reference "TITUS 2:13" is written in a larger, bold, serif font.

¹³ Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God
and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

TITUS 2:13
